NOTIFICATION OF DOCKET ENTRY

This docket entry was made by the Clerk on Monday, November 13, 2023:

MINUTE entry before the Honorable Steven C. Seeger: The Court circulated by email a Word version of the updated draft of the proposed jury instructions on the afternoon of Sunday, November 12, 2023. The draft includes the instructions circulated to the parties by email (in Word) after the first jury instructions conference on Wednesday, November 8, and includes a number of substantive antitrust instructions as well. The updated draft borrows heavily from the ABA model instructions, and takes into account the proposed jury instructions submitted by the parties. The Court circulated the draft for discussion purposes, so that the parties can be prepared to discuss the draft during the upcoming second installment of the jury instructions conference on November 13, 2023. Counsel must be prepared to discuss that draft at the upcoming conference. The Court underscores that the draft is merely a draft. It is not a ruling. It is a starting point for discussion purposes (only). The draft also does not cover the entire waterfront. The Court plans to include additional instructions on topics such as the applicable standard (Rule of Reason vs. per se) in later drafts. Mailed notice. (jjr,)
